

The Learning Community Management System

Build a better education experience with personalized K-12 website solutions

EDLINE IS NOW BLACKBOARD ENGAGE.

It's the same products you know and love with a new division name that better defines what we are passionate about—parental and student engagement. Blackboard Engage will continue to serve the K-12 community through its flagship Edline Learning Community Management System (LCMS).

Our extensible platform offers members of every group—from the district and school level to classrooms, clubs, teams and committees—a way to communicate easily and effectively.

Built specifically for K-12 school districts and their learning communities, the Edline Learning Community Management System (LCMS) from Blackboard Engage is the first website and communication solution designed for 360° views of learning both in and out of the classroom.

As an industry leader for more than a decade, we have helped thousands of schools succeed by providing innovative technologies that support and engage all members of the education community including:

TECHNOLOGY DIRECTORS

With tiered permissioning, Blackboard Engage's Edline LCMS is both user-friendly and intuitive, enabling any user to publish content quickly and easily.

ADMINISTRATORS

Our websites and learning tools save you time and money by getting your messages out efficiently and eliminating the endless costs related to printing, while maintaining your school's image and online presence with our professionally designed websites.

TEACHERS

We deliver an incredibly easy-to-use experience that helps educators provide comprehensive online learning environments—enhancing their effectiveness and ultimately increasing student performance.

PARENTS

Personalized navigation means your shortcuts and consolidated links are ready and waiting upon login—making it faster and easier to get the information that matters to you.

STUDENTS

Our products create an engaging education environment that provides students with familiar online technologies that are easy, safe and productive.

We Give You Design Options!

When picking a creative direction, you can choose from one of our award-winning designs or opt for a custom-designed website made specifically for your school. Either way, you will ensure brand and image continuity for your school—emphasizing the values, achievements and goals that you want to express through your web presence.

E-RATE FUNDING OPPORTUNITIES

Please note that not all LCMS products and services are eligible for E-rate funding. The Federal E-rate program provides funding for website hosting, which is one of several products and services offered as part of Blackboard Engage's Edline LCMS platform. Other LCMS offerings, such as gradebook solutions, Interactive Classroom, Forms and Surveys and design services are not eligible for funding. To learn more about E-rate funding and eligibility of Blackboard Engage products, visit blackboard.com/engage/erate.
